Our CONNECTION

By Apostle Jeff Oldham

Psalms 61:1 Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer. 2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I. 3 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

I write this with the youth of the church on my mind. Our brother Joel Yates has admonished us many times to not think of the youth as our future, but rather they are the today – we cannot overlook the role they play in the church TODAY, reinforcing the importance of our outreach and connection TODAY. I write this as a reminder for each of us to find opportunities to utilize our young people, encouraging them in their service to our Lord and Savior, tapping in to their talents, encouraging them to be involved. I would challenge each of us to dedicate time in our busy lives to focus in some way towards the youth of the church, and while I realize we all have talents in different ways, we each have something that we can give.

I am reminded of the scripture in Alma 16 where it talks of the Spirit of the Lord growing within us.

Alma 16:152 Now we will compare the word unto a seed. 153 Now if ye give place, that a seed may be planted in your heart, behold, if it be a true seed, or a good seed, if ye do not cast it out by your unbelief, that ye will resist the Spirit of the Lord, behold, it will begin to swell within your breasts; 154 And when you feel these swelling motions, ye will begin to say within yourselves, It must needs be that this is a good seed, or that the word is good, for it beginneth to enlarge my soul; yea, it beginneth to enlighten my understanding; yea, and it beginneth to be delicious to me. 155 Now behold, would not this increase your faith? I say unto you, Yea; nevertheless it hath not grown up to a perfect knowledge. 156 But behold, as the seed swelleth, and sprouteth, and beginneth to grow, and then ye must needs say, that the seed is good; for behold it swelleth, and sprouteth, and beginneth to grow. 157 And now behold, will not this strengthen your faith? Yea, it will strengthen your faith, for ye will say, I know that this is a good seed, for behold, it sprouteth and beginneth to grow. 158 And now behold, are ye sure that this is a good seed? I say unto you, Yea; for every seed bringeth forth unto its own likeness; therefore, if a seed groweth, it is good, but if it groweth not, behold, it is not good; therefore it is cast away. 159 And now, behold, because ye have tried the experiment, and planted the seed, and it swelleth, and sprouteth, and beginneth to grow, ye must needs know that the seed is good.

I enjoy this scripture, and see it as a great parallel to encouraging that development within our children. Encouraging them again, as stated above, to be involved, strengthening their foundation in the Lord, a shelter from the enemy.

In that spirit, and while I am no expert in understanding teenagers, I want to highlight an interesting detail many of us already know, but see this as being interesting while talking with kids – please understand that this may sound odd and I am in no way an expert. Understanding not only some of the things that face our youth today, it is also important to understand how we interact with kids, encouraging us to not be frustrated, but rather to better understand. There was a recent article found titled, “Texting, TV and Tech Trashing Childrens’ Attention Spans” (Huffington Post – November 2012). This article talks of the heavy use of digital media and the “potentially harmful effects” of the many media choices bombarding our youth and frankly each of us today. While I fully recognize the harmful effects, one of the outcomes is the impact this has on their attention span. In a Pew survey of middle and high school teachers, “...87% report that” “technologies” create “an easily distracted generation with short attention spans,” and while you may not be surprised, it is important to understand the realities of our discussions with many of the youth we interact with today. We can agree or disagree, but living with two teenagers, I can attest to the above.

I share this as I want to reinforce the importance of finding a way to connect with the youth of our church. Building that foundation, strengthening the root of the seed that is mentioned above, is vital to that connection to Christ as they grow. I enjoy the scripture in II Nephi 3 when Nephi asks that he might have an escape from his enemies.

II Nephi 3:52 Wilt thou deliver me out of the hands of mine enemies? 53 Wilt thou make me that I may shake at the appearance of sin? 54 May the gates of hell be shut continually before me, because that my heart is broken and my spirit is contrite? 55 O Lord, wilt thou not shut the gates of thy righteousness before me, that I may walk in the path of the low valley, that I may be strict in the plain road? 56 O Lord, wilt thou encircle me around in the robe of thy righteousness? 57 O Lord, wilt thou make a way for mine escape before mine enemies? 58 Wilt thou make my path straight before me? 59 Wilt thou not place a stumbling block in my way? 60 But that thou wouldst clear my way before me, and hedge not up my way, but the ways of mine enemy. 61 O Lord, I have trusted in thee, and I will trust in thee forever. 62 I will not put my trust in the arm of flesh; for I know that cursed is he that putteth his trust in the arm of flesh. 63 Yea, cursed is he that putteth his trust in man, or maketh flesh his arm. 64 Yea, I know that God will give liberally to him that asketh. 65 Yea, my God will give me, if I ask not amiss: therefore, I will lift up my voice unto thee; yea, I will cry unto thee, my God, the rock of my righteousness. 66 Behold, my voice shall forever ascend up unto thee, my rock and mine everlasting God.

Amen.

I ask that you give this prayerful consideration, a reminder to all of us of the influence that we have on those around us. Building a relationship, a connection, to those around us is vital to building and strengthening Christ's Church. My hope is that we are working on that connection to the youth of the church no differently than to our brothers and sisters who we have an easier connection with sometimes. I will close with a scripture from Mosiah 2:25-27:

25 And ye will not suffer your children, that they go hungry, or naked; 26 Neither will ye suffer that they transgress the laws of God, and fight and quarrel one with another, and serve the devil, which is the master of sin, or which is the evil spirit which hath been spoken of by our fathers; he being an enemy to all righteousness; 27 But ye will teach them to walk in the ways of truth and soberness; ye will teach them to love one another, and to serve one another;....

TESTIMONY

Lighthouse

By Natasha Gill

Saturday night I was in my room looking at a lighthouse painting that's on my wall. All of a sudden a whole bunch of thoughts started to fall into place like a puzzle.

Lighthouses are built up high on a sturdy foundation, away from the waves and tide, because if they were built close to the shore the waves would wash the foundations out and they would crumble. Now some lighthouses are tall and at the very top have a very strong light that shines for all to see. If a sailor is lost or in a storm, the light from a lighthouse could save him. Sometimes the waves are too rough or the mist too thick, and no matter how bright that light is, it can't save the sailor.

Christians are called to be lights! We should first have a sturdy foundation (Bible and Book of Mormon). Our light is our belief and our faith in God. Around us there are many religions, and the world with all its vanities. We are called to shine God's light so lost souls may see it, repent, and be saved. Some people are so lost in the world and other religions that they refuse to see the truth.

But just like a lighthouse, if we build our foundation too close to the ocean (other religions, teachings of the world), we will be washed away by the tides of the ocean. If the light of a lighthouse was set to float on the ocean, the mist would obscure the light and it would be carried away by the tide. We aren't called to be part of the world, because just like that light we would be swept away in other beliefs and our light dimmed by vanities. If our light isn't bright enough lost sailors won't see it and will crash and be lost. If we are part of the world then how do we expect to save it? When we say we are Christians yet we're mingling with the world, what are they seeing and thinking? If we can't change our own lives and live righteously, then how do we expect to influence and change the world?

Preschool/Kindergarten: Jesus is ALIVE!

Activity: Resurrection Rolls

This is a baking activity, so you will need access to an oven. The recipe makes 8 rolls, so adjust as needed for your class. Clean up is much easier if you line the baking sheet with parchment paper. These are gooey, sugary, and yummy...so be prepared with wipes for sticky fingers!

You will need:

|--|----------------------------|
| 1 (10 oz) can refrigerated crescent dinner rolls | Baking sheet |
| 8 large marshmallows | Parchment paper (optional) |
| ¼ cup melted butter | Non-stick baking spray |
| 2 Tbsp ground cinnamon | Paper towels |
| 2 Tbsp sugar | Wipes (for clean up) |
| Oven | |

Just before class:

- Preheat oven to 400 degrees and either line a baking sheet with parchment paper (lightly coat top with non-stick spray) or do without the parchment and lightly spray the sheet.
- Separate the crescent rolls into individual triangles and place on separate plates. Cover with parchment paper or a paper towel to keep from drying out. Place in the refrigerator, so they don't get too sticky and hard to work with. Have them at your table when class starts.
- Melt ¼ cup of butter.

Class/Activity Time!

- Wash and dry the students' hands, so they can put together these treats.
- Measure the cinnamon and sugar; mix them together in a bowl.
- Pass out the plates with the crescent rolls to each student.
- Give each student a large marshmallow. Have them coat it with the melted butter, then roll it in the cinnamon sugar mixture.
- Place into the center of the crescent roll dough triangle.
- Carefully wrap the dough around the marshmallow. Make sure the dough covers the entire surface of the marshmallow.
- Pinch the seams together tightly to seal in the marshmallow. If any seam is undone, the marshmallow will leak through and the lesson won't be as effective. (Teachers will have to help the students or double-check their work.)
- Bake until a golden brown, about 12-15 minutes. While the Resurrection Rolls are baking, tell the students about the resurrection of Christ (see story at www.cocsermons.net).
- Let them cool a bit before you break them open to see the tomb is EMPTY! Relate this to Christ's tomb being empty. He is ALIVE, just as He said!

Elementary & Middle School: Seek and Ye Shall Find (Easter Lesson)

Activity: Looking for Jesus Christ (find the balance of this lesson at www.cocsermons.net)

For Elementary age students: Photocopy verses in your Bible or go to the Church of Christ AVA website for the lesson to print off, so you can cut up Bible verses to hide in plastic eggs.

For Middle School students: In each egg, put only the reference to the verse for the middle school child to look up before proceeding to find the next egg.

- 1st egg should be near the tomb: In the first egg is the scripture; John 14: 26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.
- 2nd egg: Matthew 17: 20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.
- 3rd egg: Matthew 24:42 Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.
- 4th egg: Matthew 25:35 For I was hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger and ye took me in.
- 5th egg: Matthew 25:36 Naked and ye clothed me: I was sick and ye visited me: I was in prison and ye came unto me.
- 6th egg: Matthew 7:14 Because strait is the gate and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.
- 7th egg: Matthew 7:17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.
- 8th egg: Matthew 8:3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.
- 9th egg: Matthew 8:20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.
- 10th egg: John 10:9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.
- 11th egg: Matthew 13:9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.
- 12th egg: Matthew 7:7-8 Ask and it shall be given you: seek and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

TESTIMONIES

How Have the Scriptures Changed Your Life?

A few testimonies from the youth of Mexico

I want to extend a greeting to my church family. Today we are united by the perfect sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Now I can say that we have a treasure for our life. Throughout the Book of Mormon and the Bible we can hear the voice of God. That sweet voice that always reminds us how He loves us. From His word He teaches the correct path that we need to walk in. Many times we can say that it is difficult, but we read in Hebrews 13:5, “I will never leave thee...”

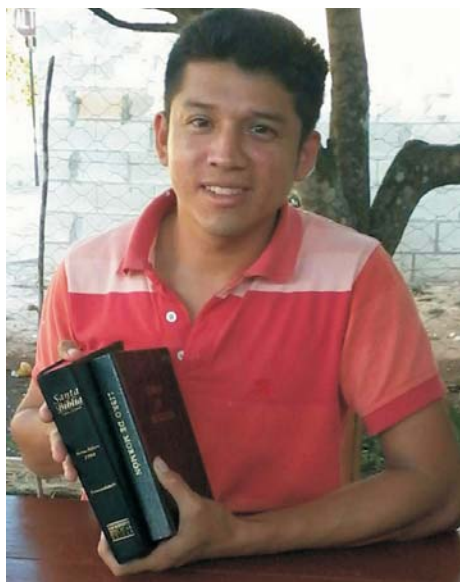

I can say in my life that the Scriptures have completely satisfied my life. When I was younger I was looking for something to fill my life, but never found that something. I just found it in God and His message. When I was reading John 4:14 I got the knowledge that I needed in life; a different knowledge that I have never experienced before. I feel very thankful with God, because He gave me the opportunity to have met Him, and continue to learn from Him. I know that we need His forgiveness and His wisdom. I want to share with you my favorite verse: Psalms 119:33.

*Elisa Diaz
Tizimin, Yucatan, Mexico*

In the times of adversity in my life, the scriptures are always a refuge for me. They help me to direct my life, and I have always found the correct direction. During a difficult time in my life, when my parents were divorced, the scriptures were my only refuge. My favorite verses are in Joshua 1:8-9.

*Esteffi Maldonado
Merida, Yucatan, Mexico*

The Book of Mormon totally changed my life, when I heard the incomparable words in a youth camp. I remember I was invited by a friend of mine, now my brother in Christ Jose Luis Ku, and his father in the camp. I heard the studies that Apostle Don McIndoo was giving; he spoke about the words in Jacob 3:31-153. That was a great day in my life; I felt such a joy to hear those wonderful words! At that moment it seemed to me that I had heard those words before (in a dream some time ago). In reality it was the first time for me to hear about the Book of Mormon. Since that time I am always enjoying the word of God; I know that it is the TRUTH, and the histories, promises and the instructions will help me all my life to prepare me for that glorious day.

I am a witness of the validity of the scriptures, I give my testimony to anyone I can. I know for sure that I need to learn more, and when I have something I need to change in my life I have a testimony that in the Bible and the Book of Mormon we have the fullness of the gospel to help me in my life.

Jacinto Gilberto Barrera Dzan Yucatán México

Iwant to say that the Scriptures have changed my life and still changing daily. The word of our God is in these two books and they have the fullness of the Gospel. Our church is blessed to have them. When I read them it helps me to change my life, and also to have hope; I feel very blessed to know and have these two wonderful treasures. They fill my life completely with joy and peace, and they are my counselor. They help me to guide my life in God's way, and also help me know that I have to correct my life in order to achieve salvation. These two books are my light, because I have seen great blessings and contemplate the marvelous works of God and His promises that are faithful and truth. I feel blessed from my Lord to have these treasures with me: the Bible and the Book of Mormon.

25TH ANNUAL CHURCH OF CHRIST TEEN CAMP

BY JENNIFER MCCLURE

The 25th annual Church of Christ Teen Camp in Missouri was a blessed one in so many ways. Our theme was from Ephesians 6:11, "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil." From the ice-breaker activity where campers outfitted their counselors in a suit of newspaper armor, through the challenging "Rod of Iron" exercise, to a very Spirit-filled final campfire on Thursday evening, the power of that theme made a strong impression on campers during every activity, class and sermon during the week.

One of the blessings we enjoyed this year was a crop of fresh faces among the teachers and counselors from across the United States; for some it was their first or second time participating at this level in recent years. They included Adam Rob (Tennessee), Riley Mengarelli (Washington), Amanda and Stephen Stratton (Michigan), Gary Jacobsen (Arizona), Sasha Gill (Arizona/Honduras), Ben Sedlak (Missouri) and Curtis Geier (Missouri). We had an awesome group of new 12-year-old campers; six fantastic young ladies.

There was a moving graduation ceremony for our five graduating campers - see photo.

Among the list of things campers enjoy most is the camaraderie with their friends and, of course, all the fun activities such as the cabin challenges and campfire skits.

Many of them also say, though, it is the final campfire service and spiritual classes they appreciate deeply. Camper Van McClure, age 13, said his favorite class

SPIRITUAL WARFARE.

this year was Spiritual Warfare. "I learned a lot about what it really means to 'put on the whole armor of God' - we are in a battle for our soul," said McClure. "I feel more confident about how to stay away from and to fight temptation. It was really neat learning from Stephen Stratton, who was actually in the military and taught us a lot about strategy that can protect us both physically and spiritually. I have to intentionally stay close to Christ and my Church of Christ family to be successful."

VAN McCLURE

In an interview for the video class by Camper Mikaela Grim, Boy's Cabin #3 Counselor Riley Mengarelli talked about why he wanted to come back and help support Teen Camp as a C.I.T. and later a Counselor. "This camp did a lot for me as a kid. I grew a lot spiritually even though this is only a week long," said Mengarelli. "I learned a whole bunch about God and met a lot of really neat people, and so I wanted to give back to this camp. Besides that, I like being goofy and having fun with the kids. I love our youth and the kids in the church. That's what made me want to come back and be a counselor."

MIDDLE ROW - BRADEN OLDHAM, ISAAC CRANE, CODY HEDRICK AND JEREMIAH YATES; FRONT - C.I.T. ADAM ROBB.

Following Camp, at the Missouri Reunion, there was a very nice celebration of the 25 years of Teen Camp featuring photos, camp journals and videos down through the years, as well as a display of the many different camp-issued T-shirts. Many current and former campers also shared their fondest memories and testimonies about camp.

If you are 12-18 years of age, or have a child/grandchild/niece or nephew that age - please mark your calendar for the 2015 Church of Christ Teen Camp, July 26-31. If you or your church local would like to make a donation to help provide a scholarship(s) for a camper or provide other resources to support the camp, please contact Jeff and Michelle Oldham at mnjoldham@me.com or by calling 515-339-6226.

2014 Yucatan Youth Camp

July 28, 2014

Dear brothers and sisters,
Thank you so much for your prayers for our youth camp.

This year the theme was "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8:32). We had 50 young people in attendance. We appreciate the interest showed by all the young people of the classes and in all the activities. We spent four wonderful days with them. I also appreciate the interest of the families that attended with us, supporting the youth. We rented a place close to the town of Dzan, where we had the first local here in the Yucatan peninsula. I thank God for all the talented people that we have, especially the staff and all the young people that organized this beautiful camp. Also for the ministry that were present in this beautiful event. Again thank you for your continued prayers for the work here.

*May God bless you each.
Your servant,
Apostle Placido K. Matu*

Youth Forum

A Youth Forum was held Saturday evening, the 20th of December, at a facility that had been rented in Merida, Yucatan. This was attended by 37 youth from various locals. The theme was "Preparing for Marriage."

There were four Elders, Esau from Dzan, Daniel, Felipe from Uyalc, and Ken from Phoenix, on a panel. Each Elder took a few minutes to give answers to questions asked by Brother Placido.

The presentation was well received, and at the conclusion of the panel discussion several of the young people blessed us with a special song.

We then took a short break and refreshments were served. Then the young people and the 50 to 60 adults who had accompanied their children and grandchildren gathered for a sermon by Elder Ken Oar. After the sermon there was time for socializing.

In connection to the Youth Forum, the following Monday evening several of the ministry and their wives met at the home of Placido's sister, Nely, and her husband Angel, for a meal and presentation by Elder Ken Oar on some ways we can encourage the youth in our home locals. The following is the format followed for this presentation:

EYES FOCUSED ON CHRIST

By Elder Ken Oar

SINGLE YOUNG PEOPLE

Marriage does not guarantee happiness. Marriage is good and honorable (Hebrews 13:4). I would encourage you to be married. BUT we do not need to be married to be happy or have a fulfilling life. This should not be the focus of your life.

The main purpose of your life now, and in the future, is to be preparing to serve Christ.

It does not matter how old you are or if you are married or single; this must be the main focus of your life.

What should you be doing in this time of your life?

I am going to divide this into two parts:
How can you prepare to serve God?
How can you prepare for marriage?

HOW CAN YOU PREPARE TO SERVE GOD?

Preparing to serve God you need to:

- ▶ Learn in your youth to serve Christ.
- ▶ Study the scriptures.
- ▶ Pray daily.
- ▶ Get involved by looking for things you can do to serve.
- ▶ Get involved in your local or mission.
- ▶ Take on responsibilities.

Maybe you can volunteer to teach Sunday school; sing in the choir; teach young children to sing; get together with other young people and do special presentations at church. Use this time in your life to learn, be involved in young people studies and activities.

- ▶ Mentor a child.

- ▶ Be a friend to someone who is having difficulties at home, at school, or socially.
- ▶ Make sure you are at church; set the example for other young people and adults.
- ▶ Visit the sick, the elderly, and other young people.
- ▶ Do not let life steal your time.

Do not get too involved in the world. Satan's biggest tool is to get us to waste our time. We end up not having time to serve.

Cell phones, internet, and computers are great tools for good, BUT they are also Satan's tools to take us away from our service to God. Be careful how much time you spend using these tools every day. Always be careful what you use these tools for. Are you using them to serve God or to be involved in things of the world?

HOW CAN YOU PREPARE FOR MARRIAGE?

It is natural to be looking for a husband or a wife.

- ▶ You should be preparing to be the best husband or wife you can be.

Developing the characteristics that would be attractive to the opposite sex. You need to look at marriage through the eyes of the one you might marry.

- ▶ What is a man looking for in a wife?
- ▶ What is a woman looking for in a husband?

You need to be developing those characteristics in your life.

- ▶ Marriage is not a fifty-fifty union; it requires 100% from both to make it work.

Your husband should make you a better woman. Your wife should make you a better man. You should be praying that God will lead you to the man or woman who will be a good husband or wife for you.

- ▶ Allow God to lead you.

Too many times we allow our hormones to dictate our decisions. Trust God. Believe that His plan for your life is the one that will make you happy.

- ▶ What qualities are you looking for in a husband or wife?

Dating is for the purpose of leading to marriage. When you start dating it should be to a person that you would consider spending your life with. Get to know that person in group activities.

Some qualities you might want to look for when considering marriage:

- ▶ Does this person want to be a servant of God?
- ▶ How does this person treat his/her family, especially a family member of the opposite sex?

- ▶ Does this person make you feel secure?
- ▶ What are his/her goals in life?
- ▶ Is he/she willing to do what God tells them to do?

Are you willing to trust God? Are you willing to put your life in His hands and know that the plan He has for your life is the best one? We can only be truly happy if we allow God to direct our lives.

PHOENIX Local News

By DiAnn Hedrick

Happy New Year to all of you from all of us in Phoenix! I hope you have all been blessed with the start of this New Year.

So much has happened over the last few months I don't know where to start. I would like to begin by reminding each of you to pray for all our missionaries out in the field; whether it be in this country or anywhere around the world. The work they do is so essential, but increasingly dangerous. Remember, too, to pray for all those who continue to have medical problems and numerous other daily concerns with jobs, family, finances and just the stresses of everyday life. We are blessed to know that regardless of our problems here on earth, there is something so much greater and beautiful waiting for us if we follow on the right path.

Many of you were able to attend the wedding on January 2, of Br. Caleb and Sr. Amy Case (Yates). What a wonderful event, albeit very chilly!

The Kidd family was blessed with

Amy (Yates) & Caleb Case

the birth of their first child, born Dec. 3, 2014, daughter Harper Rose Kidd.

What would our congregations be without children, and how important it is for those children to be involved in the church. As we often hear, children are the future! At the Phoenix local, our children have a variety of ways to participate in these activities. Each and every Sunday they have the chance to attend Sunday School. I have to admit that I don't know of many kids who aren't a part of this very important activity.

Thanks to our Sr. Michelle, there aren't too many who aren't already polishing their vocal talents. Perhaps, had I had someone like Sr. Michelle or our Sr. Manon from the Temple Lot at an early age, I too would be up there singing my heart out. Or maybe not, if you have ever heard me sing the Cat in the Window to my nephews! Thank goodness for children like our little Sr. Rebekah Oar, brave enough to get up there all by herself and sing away for the Lord and congregation.

There are so many other activities to keep our children engaged and forming relationships that will last a lifetime. Christmas programs, game nights, Young People, Junior Young People. The opportunities are endless, and all possible due to parents who give of their time and talents.

I wish you all the best in this coming year and pray that God blesses each and every one of you.
